

German Writing (GER 1001)

TU TH 9:25 AM - 10:40 AM, Prof. John Lyon

Improve your German style and grammar and fulfill a Writing General Education Requirement. All discussions, reading, and writing assignments will be in German.

In this course, we will practice:

- email conventions,
 - the art of the job letter,
 - expository and descriptive prose,
 - persuasive prose,
 - thank you notes,
 - proofreading and editing texts,
 - important grammar concepts,
- and more!

The planned operational modality for this class is currently REMOTE (it may change if a classroom is found). For more information about the course, please contact jblyon@pitt.edu.

Class Attributes:

Writing Intensive Course (WRIT); European and Eurasian Studies;
West European Studies

