

Spring Term 2021-4

German 1105: Literary Analysis

TuTh 11:05-12:20pm

Gen. Ed.: Literature

Instructor:

Prof. von Dirke

vondirke@pitt.edu

Why do people around the globe tell stories?

What stories do they tell in the German-speaking world?

Why and how?

What is the significance of narrative today?

Learn the tools of textual analysis and read between the lines of fictional and non-fictional texts while practicing your GERMAN.

Materials and language of instruction: GERMAN