

Fall 2022 TuTh 1:00-2:15pm CL 339

German 1104/Soc. Scie. I:

Test the West: Germany after World War II

General Ed. Requirements

DSAS Geographic Region

DSAS Historical Analysis

SCI Polymathic Contexts: Global&Cross Cult.

SCI Polymathic Contexts: Soc/Behav.

This course explores the rebuilding of West Germany's democracy and collective identity after World War II through historiographic texts and current audio-visual media.

Topics include: weight of the past (failure of Weimar Republic, Holocaust influence of US popular culture and German-American relations significance of the economy and peace for Germany today theories of identity formation in the field of history.

All materials and language of instruction GERMAN!

Instructor: Prof. von Dirke

vondirke@pitt.edu