German 1105: Literary Analysis
M & We 3:00-4:15pm  CL 339
Gen. Ed.: Literature
Instructor: Prof. von Dirke
vondirke@pitt.edu

Why do people around the globe tell stories?
What stories do they tell in the German-speaking world?
Why and how?
What is the significance of narrative today?

Learn the tools of textual analysis and read between the lines of fictional and non-fictional texts while practicing your GERMAN.

Materials and language of instruction: GERMAN